Today's Metal Prices

NEW YORK QUOTATIONS.

New York, July 1 .- Silver 65c; lead, $6.90; spelter, $11.62; copper, $25.50. $27.50@29.00.

The Ogden Standard.

FEARLESS, INDEPENDENT, PROGRESSIVE NEWSPAPER.

Sunday Fair; Warmer in South Por-tion Tonight; Monday and Tuesday

Forty-sixth Year-No. 157.

Price Five Cents.

OGDEN CITY, UTAH, SATURDAY EVENING, JULY 1, 1916.

Entered as Second Class Matter at the Postoffice, Ogden, Utah.

British Gain Great Victory Sweep German Trenches

COMBINED FRENCH AND BRITISH ATTACK MOST FURIOUS OF WAR

British Bring Up Battery After Battery of Big Guns and Distribute Them Along Twenty-mile Front-Violent Offensive With Immense Number of Men Advances Rapidly-Towns Destroyed and Positions Taken by Overwhelming Power of Guns and Swarms of Infantry-Eight Hundred Thousand Germans Facing British Front-French Steadily Holding Line.

front up to 12:30 o'clock, five hours after the combined French and British offensive was launched, showed that the allies had captured the towns of La Boiselle, Serre and Montauban and Curlu and Faviere woods. The main first line trenches over the entire front under attack are reported to have been stormed and at various points the fighting has reached the main second line.

These reports show that the French and British at the points of their furthest advances have broken through a distance of more than five miles be yend the first German trenches. Montauban is five and a half miles east of the old British front and Curlu wood is six miles east-southeast of Intense Struggle Underway.

The Britis hare endeavoring to surround Thiepeval and at other points an intense struggle is under way for towns and villages. Reports from the front indicate that the important German position at Fricourt may be

At this hour the British are making good progress behind the front lines in German-held territory. Serre British and Montauban, which the have captured, are important tactical points. Serre is southeast of Hebuterne and Montauban is northeast of Bray. The British are fighting for the villages of Mametz and Contal maison, portions of which they hold.

British Fighting Gallantly. The British are endeavoring to surand have taken many prisoners in the front lines.

The French, advancing on the Brit ish right, are moving with great stead After the assault, they very quickly covered a distance of two kilometers beyond the German second line. Thus far the day has gone well for France and England.

Under a pall of shell smoke with the unbroken roar of artillery, struggle on the longest line of offensive yet undertaken on the western front, which begun at 7:30 o'clock this morning, is continued at this

From a hill the Associated Press correspondent watched the beginning

Immense Numbers In Attack. Notwithstanding the fact troops have been moved to the front in immense numbers for the attack, there are still remaining billets in the rear which apparently are unnecessary in working out the present With deliberate and methodical precision, the gathering of human and mechanical material proceeded. The whole line was included in the preliminary bombardment for the purpose of deceiving the Germans as to the point of attack. Infantry Swarms Trenches. Overwhelming as was the power of the guns, the significant spectacle was detachments of infantry, in field fighting equipment, moving forward until finally the dugouts were hives of khaki about to swarm forth for battle. Each of the officers had maps and directions in detail of the part his unit was to play in the complicated scheme of attack. The men had sewed in their uniforms insignia of different units. As the battalions moved they sang the tunes they used to sing on the drill grounds at home.

of the British offensive French infan- bringing up supports, wrecking everytry advanced to the attack. This move ment of French troops was inaugurated over a section of the French line adjoining the junction point with the morning with a degree of fury and a tion. Early this morning more guns line. number of guns which were unpre were brought into action on this twen-cedented in the region of Albert and ty mile sector and for an hour and a quarter tion to the south. smoke and dust which hung over the of heavy artillery.

Whole field as far as the eye could see, This morning the correspondents at

British Headquarters in France, for an assault on a front of over twen-July 1.—Reports received from the ty miles. Already it has gained pos. in penetrating the enemy's defenses the advance is continuing.

Mortars Fire 35 Shells a Minute. The new British mortars, which fire 35 shells a minute, played a great part, cutting wire entanglements and destroying trenches.

Large numbers of prisoners have been taken. Some of the prisoners say the British curtains of fire prevented them from getting food for the last five days.

A British staff officer who witnessed the advance at the junction of the French and British lines said the attack was launched as though the men were on parade.

The British casualties were densely wooded. cers.

ward of Lille road, after a heavy bom- about the opposite slopes. bardment

On Wednesday night the British fensive says: made three raids in the neighborhood of Germans. The King's Shropshire try. dozen prisoners.

London, July 1, 1 p. m .- After weeks of intense bombardment with guns of troops." every callber, firing a million shells the British early this morning launched a general offensive against the German line along a front of twenty miles north of the river Somme. many men.

The French on the British right cooperated in the attack. When the ast dispatches thus far received left war. British headquarters the fighting was still progressing and further successes, it was said, were being record-offensive was decided upon many land had 2,000,000 men fully equipped weeks ago and the bombardment of and trained in preparation for the suthe rest of the line, as well as the preme effort to break the German frequent raids which procured for lines. More than 1,000,000 shells are British headquarters important infor- declared to have been fired daily in mation as to the disposition of the the preliminary bombardment which Germans, was designed to keep the extended over a front 90 miles in German generals uncertain as to the length. point at which they would be called upon to meet the brunt of the attack.

This is the first time since the outbreak of the war that the intention of an army to undertake an offensive has been so well advertised. A week ago when the German attacks against Verdun began to make further headway and it was feared the army of the crown prince was getting within also met with severe reverses and for a distance of Verdun which was dangrous for the allies, the British guns began to speak. Since then, except for the hours when British infantrymen were raiding German trenches, a continual bombardment has been maintained. Innumerable Batterles Take Turn. Batteries, which now are innumer able, took turns at smashing the Ger man defenses, destroying communication trenches and blowing up ammunition depots. New trench mortars, particularly destructive, tore away wire entanglements, broke down parapets and generally opened the way for men with rifles and bayonets. guns of 15 inches and other large call-Simultaneously with the launching bers prevented the Germans from thing within range. of the Somme and earlier dispatches against him by Carranza's minister of told of the destruction of the towns foreign affairs, and concentrated his Bombardment of Unprecended Fury.

The artillery bombardment of the last few days was concentrated this Germans had concentrated ammunithe Somme with the French co-opera half the Germans were subjected to Grande and the western lines reflect a bombardment which is described as ed the preparations being made by the the infantry sprang from the trenches the front for British newspapers, while day from the north east and west.

ralding successes, warned the public that an advance must be made by in-fantry and not by artillery and that the British army could not expect to come out of the engagement scatheless. First accounts of the battle however, state that the British casuilties were not heavy.

The news spread throughout London like wildfire. There was a fran-tic rush to obtain special editions of he evening newspapers.

British Fight Continues.

London, July 1, 7:46 a. m.—"An at-tack was launched north of the river Somme at 7:30 o'clock in conjunction with the French," says an official announcement given out here today British troops have broken into the German forward system of defense on a front of sixteen miles.

"The fighting is continuing. The French attack on our immediate right is proceeding equally satisfactorily "On the remainder of the British front raiding parties again succeeded session of the first line trenches and at many points, inflicting loss on the enemy and taking some prisoners.

The war office announced that the necessary passenger traffic between Great Britain and the continent would be regulated closely and reduced as far as possible. Only those having serious reasons are permitted to Facing 800 000 Germans. The number of Germans opposing the British front and in reserve behind the lines was estimated a month ago at 800,000.

tack was launched as though the left were on parade.

Raid by Colonials.

A raid by Australian and New Zea and troops on the German lines last are pushing, altogether different from the British line. The southern end rests on the Somme. It is a broad rolling country, over which the British are pushing, altogether different from the British lines. The southern end tacked heavily both east and west of Hill 304, but most of their attacks were repulsed. Nancy was bombarded by German long range guns. night resulted in the killing of about the flat marshy and bleak aspect of 80 German soldiers, including two offi- Flanders. Its rounded chalk hills are

At many points on this sector of The Germans made an ineffective the British front it is possible to see night on the left bank in the entire raid on British trenches to the west- the trenches of the Germans winding region east and west of Hill 304 the A military expert writing on the of-

"It is safe to say the Germans never of Mesnes and accounted for a number expected a great attack in this coun-We may hope, therefore, for a light infantry made an expedition into reduction of the salient there and the was repulsed with sanguinary losses the German lines and returned with a securing of better strategic positions. for the enemy, Far more important than that, it is certain this attack will be very de-

Five-Day Bombardment.

The tremendous offensive which has been launched by the British army on the German front is the culmina-They succeeded in taking the German tion of a five-day bombardment which front line trenches and capturing in the amount of ammunition expended and in the territory involved, exceeds anything of the kind that has been previously known in the world

2 000 000 Men Ready.

For some weeks reports have been current in England and France that the 'big push" of the British was about The front selected for the British to commence. It was stated that Eng-

The allies are now on the offensive n practically every field of the war The British assault comes on the heels of the great successes won by the Russians in Galicia and Bukowina which have resulted in completely driving the Austrians from Bukowina and are still continuing. On the Italian front the central powers have several days the Italians have been steadily driving the Austrians from position after position in the Tren-The defense also of Verdun by the French appear to have stiffened the balance of battle in that bitterly confested sector appears recent ly to have swayed in favor of the de-

Two Towns Destroyed.

The artillery fire was particularly intense on a stretch of the front north on the charges of bad faith made San Antonio, Texas, July 1.-Gen- aged. attention on the silent marshaling of his growing army along the border Earlier reports from General Pershing in Mexico and from head-quarter commanders along the Rio At 7:30 o'clock, through clouds of the fiercest experienced in this war Mexican war department for a break

Troops are nearing the border to-

Germans Make Four Attacks With Liquid Fire, Capturing Positions From French.

LOSE GROUND TAKEN

Fighting of Extreme Violence Throughout Night on Both Sides of the Meuse.

Paris, July 1, 12 noon. After four violent attacks with liquid fire the Germans succeeded in capturing the positions east of Hill 304 which were taken by the French yesterday. French made a counter attack and recaptured the position, according to an official statement issued by the war office today

After several furious assaults the Germans succeeded in penetrating the works around Thiaumont which were captured by the French yesterday, a cording to the official statement. The approaches to Thiaumont are still in the hands of the French. The sector of the German front on of great violence lasted throughout the On the west of the Meuse, fighting which the British have assumed the night in the neighborhood of the Es

> The text of the statement says "On both banks of the Meuse the enemy delivered violent offensive actions. Last evening and during the fighting was particularly intense. The Germans launched no less than four attacks upon different sectors. first attack accompanied by jets of liquid fire upon our positions between Hill 304 and the Esnes-Haucourt road

"The second attack delivered with hand grenades west of the Esnes-Haustructive to the morale of the German court road met with the same fate.

Powerful Infantry Action. "During the night east of Hill 304 a powerful German infantry action had succeeded in capturing a fortified work which had been taken by us yesterday together with some trenches on the slopes east of Hill 304 but our counter attacks, immediately launched, restored the work to us entirely and the lost terrain.

"Finally this morning we repulsed with success a German attack which attempted to reach the redoubt of Avocourt and we inflicted severe loss Germans Penetrate Redoubt. "On the right bank the combats in progress yesterday in the Thiaumont sector continued fiercely for possesseries of furious assaults, preceded by bombardments, the Germans again succeeded in penetrating the redoubt which was completely wrecked, but we

'Heavy artillery activity continued in the regions of the Fumin and Chenois woods and Laufee. "In Lorraine two small German at tacks upon our positions in the forest ate approaches.

of Parroy were completely checked. "This morning a long range enemy gun fired several shells of great call ber in the direction of Nancy.

Russians Capture Kolomea. London, July 1, 2:09 a. m .- The an nouncement that the Russians had captured Kolomea, Galicia, reached here early today in a laconic special communication from Petrograd. This communication merely said:

'We have taken Kolomea, the most important railway center in the Bukowina region."

Rome, July 1, via Paris, 1:06 p. m. An official communication was issued today, and says: "Italian aeroplanes and seaplanes, reconnoitering in the Gulf of Triest Tuesday, were attacked by coast batteries and two groups of enemy seaplanes. The latter were put to flight. The Italian units returned undam-

FROM SALT LAKE.
The Right Reverend and Mrs. Paul

Jones of Salt Lake City motored to Ogden this morning and are spending the day with Reverend and Mrs. W. W. Fleetwood at their summer home, 'Willalyse.'

RETURN FROM FISHING TRIP. Messrs, Tom Stagg, Bert Carter, M Malone, H. McPheteris, Frank G Dodge and son Harold, have returned a fishing trip at Blg Springs,

AMERICAN TROOPS BREAKING CAMP ON MEXICAN PLAIN

This view of one of the American camps in Mexico shows the soldiers packing up equipment, taking down tents and loading transports. All is apparently bustle and confusion, but within a comparatively short time the site is cleared, wagons ready, and the troops lined up ready for the command to march.

Commissioners Meet Monday Night On Defense Fund

tional Guard. The mayor and lies of our guardsmen.

They seem to think that funds gated and what we are proud to to personal subscriptions.

The City fathers will hold a should be raised in a sort of an do for such a worthy cause. meeting Monday night to decide official manner. The Standard Several business men have ofon some course of action to provide a fund for families of the National Charlet The course of action to provide a fund for families of the National Charlet The course of action to provide a fund for families of the National Charlet The course of action to provide a fund for families of the National Charlet The course of action to provide a fund for families of the National Charlet The course of action to provide a fund for families of the National Charlet The course of action to provide a fund for families of the National Charlet The course of action to provide a fund for families of the National Charlet The course of action to provide a fund for families of the National Charlet The course of action to provide a fund for families of the National Charlet The course of action to provide a fund for families of the National Charlet The course of action to provide a fund for families of the National Charlet The course of action to provide a fund for families of the National Charlet The course of the National Charlet The course of the Charlet The course of the National Charlet The Charlet Th tate to go further in this matter. commissioners are heartily in fav- We ask no glory for this work, If the commissioners do not or of the plan to aid, but have nor do we want any credit for formulate a plan Monday night, not decided just what course to the Fund. The little we give—the Standard will carry through $600-is only what we feel obli- the raising of a fund by resorting

GERMANS ARE WITHOUT FOOD

Communicating Trenches and Cuts Off Food established ourselves in the immedi-Supply.

CUT ENTANGLEMENTS

Battery After Battery of Large Caliber Guns Arrive From England-Country Becomes an Inferno.

British Headquarters in France June 29, via London, June 30, 11:20 p. m.—Through raids, covered by a continuous bombardment the British this week have taken prisoners by whom they have identified every German battalion opposite their lines. Some of the prisoners say that the British fire has been so heavy that it has destroyed the communicating trenches and that the Germans have been unable to bring up food to their front line for days.

There has been no cessation in the British bombardment along the whole line from the Ypres salient to the Somme in the last 24 hours. The weather continues overcast with now and then rain squalls. Wherever the correspondent has gone along the line, the British have appeared to be firing two shells to the Germans one. At some points, in the face of the Britsh concentration, the German guns have seemed strangely silent, as if awaiting events.

Front Alive With Fire. British Headquarters in France, June 29, via London, June 30, 10:40 p. m.—This week the British front from Yqres salient to the Somme is -This week the British front

CARRANZA WITHHOLDS REPLY TO UNITED STATES' LATEST DEMAND

Heavy British Fire Destroys Mexicans Assume Belligerent Attitude and Continue Elaborate Preparations for War-Negotiations at Standstill-Wilson Forced to Wait Until Wednesday to Place Situation Before Congress—Preparations for Probable Hostilities Being Rushed by War Department.

> eral Carranza's reply to the last across the border. American note arrives today and is as definite as private advices from Mexi- advices at hand but learned virtually co City have indicated, it is considered probable President Wilson will have to wait at least until next week before placing the Mexican situation before congress as the house planned to adjourn today over the Fourth of July.

It was plain that administration officials were impatient at the failure to receive word of when the Mexican note might be expected, since the demand for a prompt reply went to Mexi-co City last Sunday.

Strong assurances may be given in the Mexican reply, It is believed by officials here, of the de facto government's ability to protect the border against further raids. The Mexican embassy stated fifty thousand troops would be available for this purpose if the American force is withdrawn.

Awaiting Carranza's Reply. Developments in the Mexican crisis were at a standstill while the United States government awaited impatient-

Messages received at the state de partment from Special Agent Rodgers, so far, has been unable to fore-cast the action of General Carranza and the only intimation reaching here has been through diplomatic and private dispatches. These have indicated

Washington, July 1-Unless Gen- tillty toward United States troops

Upon his return from New York President Wilson went over all the nothing he did not know when he left yesterday. After today, if it should become necessary for him to address congress, he would wait until Wednesday as both houses arranged to adjourn over the Fourth of July.

Reports to the war department during the day continued to show satisfactory progress in the military preparations for any eventualities on or across the border.

Demand Restoration of Property.

A request to the Carranza government to restore American property selzed by the Mexican local authori ties in several states, were reported to the state department by Special Agent Rodgers today. of the gold and silver bullion recently taken from Americans at Manzanillo had been returned and that Coahuila authorities were restoring many stolen horses and cattle.

Mr. Rodgers reported the publication in the Mexican City papers of the American note of June 20 with a memorandum on and criticizing it by Foreign Minister Aguilar. As the memorandum had been published in he American papers, Mr. Rodgers lid not forward it.

Marriage License-George M. Brill that the de facto government was pre-paring to stand by its attitude of hos-of Twin Falls, Idaho. of Sioux City, Iowa, and Edith J. Beck